New Business

- a. Discussion of 2020 Public Works Testing
Assistant City Administrator Megan Fulara updated the Commission on the current testing process for Public Works Laborers. This year, the City will be offering separate tests for Utilities Laborer and Streets Laborer. Applicants can test for both positions but separate lists will be created. The process will consist of these separate tests, a physical agility test, and oral interview. Scores will be married together, military preference points added, and presented to the Commission for approval. The current list is set to expire in August of 2020 but may be exhausted sooner.
- b. Discussion of 2020 Police Testing
Police Chief Ed Clark addressed the Commission regarding 2020 Police testing. The Commission requested a cost proposal to have Stanard and Associates conduct the written and oral evaluation process for Police Officers. Chief Clark stated he would obtain the information and report back to the Commission at the next meeting, March 26, 2020.
